2/26/2022

Soror Ericka Williams, a prospective candidate for 4th Anti-Basileus, was inducted into Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated in November, 2017. She has since maintained financial status. The position of which she is seeking serves as the advisor of the undergraduate chapter, Exceptional Epsilon Eta, with Spelman College located in the Atlanta University Center (AUC). Her experience as a soror with nearly five sorority years with Eta Sigma, a graduate of Clark Atlanta University (a college in the AUC), along with extensive background as an educator makes her well- equipped to provide guidance as an advisor to undergraduate sorors.

Her experience with working with undergraduate chapters began in 2019, as she actively participated in supporting the return of undergraduate sorors to Clark Atlanta University. Her participation included promoting Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. with the campus' Greek forums/informationals, and continued support was provided throughout the Torch process and then that of the mass induction, which took place at the 2019 regional conference, in Birmingham, Alabama. Not only did she provide support to undergraduates during the regional conference, she also worked with orchestrating and distributing awards to members of the Southeastern Region. It is worth mentioning that she even extended travel arrangements to undergraduate sorors in need of commute to regional conference. Her support of undergraduate sorors continued as she served as a mentor to the newly activated sorors.

Her affairs with undergraduate chapters extends from Clark Atlanta University to Spelman College, as she first began working with Exceptional Epsilon Eta Chapter in 2019, as well. During that time, she participated in scheduled informationals, provided snacks for evening meetups, attended events hosted by the chapter, and supported the induction of sorors.

Soror Williams' active participation as a soror with Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. extends beyond providing support to undergraduate chapters. She has served as Chair of the Educational committee, as well as Co-Chair for the membership committee. Additionally, she has served as a speaker for Project Cradle Care, and was recognized by the chapter for sharing her experience with overcoming the obstacles experienced as a teen mom herself. As an educator, she eagerly promotes Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated to fellow educators and students in her class. For example, in 2018, she was able to commit nine students from her class to participate in the Mwanamugimu Essay contest. "It was a wonderful feeling," she mentioned, as the first, second, and third place winners were all from her literature class.

Soror Williams is always eager to promote the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. mission of enhancing the quality of life for women and their families. She is hopeful that the ladies of Eta Sigma Chapter will find confidence in her ability to deliver as 4th Anti-Basileus.
